Parent Contract

As a parent, part of enjoying your children's participation in sport and recreation is watching them enjoy themselves, learn skills, make friends, improve their performance and generally have fun. It is important to remember that the sport or recreation activity is for the child's benefit, not the parents' entertainment. Most parents appreciate this and all parents can make a difference by abiding by the following:

- ⇒ I will remember that my child plays sport for his or her enjoyment, not for mine.
- ⇒ I will encourage my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.
- ⇒ I will teach my child that doing one's best is as important as winning, so that my child will never feel defeated by the outcome of a game/event.
- ⇒ I will make my child feel like a winner every time by offering praise for competing fairly and trying hard.
- ⇒ I will never ridicule or yell at our players or opposing players for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- ⇒ I will remember that children learn best by example. I will applaud players' performances by both my child's team and their opponents.
- ⇒ I will never question an official or coaches judgment in public.
- ⇒ I will respect and show appreciation for the trained volunteer coaches who give their time to provide sport activities for my child, understanding that I have a responsibility to be a part of my child's development.
